Abstract
Turjuman al-Mustafid 'considered' as the first tafsir book written in full 30 Juzz in the Malay Nusantara. Researchers who have conducted a study of this book gives a different opinion about the source of the writing of the book. This article is an attempt to trace back the originality of Kitab Turjuman al-Mustafid and determining the position of 'Abd al-Ra'uf Singkel and Daud al-Rumi in the the writing of the book of al-Mustafid Turjuman. Step of this research consists of two parts. First, compare the information from Daud al-Rumi in the colophon of the book with the systematic and method of exegesis. Second, conduct a study on the status of women in the book of al-Mustafid Turjuman with comparative method, ie comparison with the book of al-Baidhawi and al-Jalalayn is alleged to be a referral source of this tafsir. After the assessment, the authors concluded that al-Mustafid Turjuman's book is the work of adaptation (tarjamah tafsiriyyah) 'Abd al-Ra'uf of Tafsir al-Jalalayn, while other parts are contain of benefit and narration/Qisshah as an addition of David al-Rumi. These rese

1. INTRODUCTION
Tafsir of Nusantara’s history began in the 16th century with the discovery of manuscript tafsir of Surah al-Kahf in Aceh.\(^1\) A century later appeared complete Tafsir of 30 chapters authored by Abd al-Ra'uf Singkel by the name Turjuman al-Mustafid.\(^2\) Tafsir is believed to be the first Tafsir in Malay language written in Arabic-Malay (pegon) complete 30 chapters. This work attracted much attention among researchers, both from Nusantara, as well as from the West, including from the orientalist. As Snouck, D.A. Rinkes, P. Voorhoeve, Riddle, and others. These researchers give different conclusions about the referral source Tafsir Turjuman al-Mustafid. Snouck stated that this tafsir was a translation of Tafsir Baidhawi.\(^3\) Peter Riddell, followed by Martin Van Bruinessen states that the book is a translation of a book from Tafsir Jalalain accompanied by additional of several books of other Tafsir.\(^4\) Another orientalist conclude that this work is the work that is drawn from a wide variety of Tafsir Arabic books. Various different opinion is certainly motivated by different viewpoints. However, that does not mean there is no better conclusion than what already exists, so the opportunity to rediscover a more appropriate conclusion or at least closer, still very open to reveal the originality of Tafsir Turjuman al-Mustafid.

Authors interested in doing an internal critique of Turjuman al-Mustafid books, with due regard to the colophon and writing style of the book. This is based on the discovery of the colophon which contains an explanation of the status of the book wrote by his student, Daud al-Rumi. Thus, it will be tracked as far as the role and involvement of Daud al-Rumi in writing this work. Then, the external criticism also elaborate to see the influence of social conditions from author of the book to his interpretation, using basic assumption of pre-understanding theory by Hans Gadamer in hermeneutics.\(^5\) Therefore, the authors want to elaborate (1) Who was the author of Turjuman al-Mustafid?? (2) What is the position of David al-Rumi in writing of the book of Turjuman al-Mustafid? (3) how the interpretation of ‘Abd al-Ra'uf Singkel regarding women position in society?

2. RESEARCH METHODOLOGY
This study used a comparative method between Tafsir Turjuman al-Mustafid with some tafsir regarded as a source of its writing. Moreover, the authors also uses historical method to see if the interpretation of the book of Turjuman by ‘Abd al-Ra'uf Singkel influenced by the social conditions in the time when Aceh was led by a sulthanah for four decades.\(^6\) The technique done by elaborate some related references, both primary (Tafsir years in a variety of places, from Dhuhu (Doha), Yemen, Jeddah, Makkaah and Madinah. [xv] 'Abd al-Ra'uf has 17 teachers and met with 25 and 15 Sufi clerics. The most influential teacher was Ahmad al-Qusayysi (d.1661 M/ 1082 H) and Ibrahim al-Kurani, [xvi] the two main teachers of 'Abd al-Ra'uf has Insad tafsir Jalalain until Imam Jalaluddin al-Mahalli and Jalaluddin al-Suyuti.[xvii]

'Abd al-Ra'uf back to Nusantara around 1661 AD.[xv] At that time, the reins of leadership in the hands of the sultanate of Aceh Sultanah Safiyat al-Din who succeeded her husband Iskandar Thani. She ruled from 1641 until 1675. Later, replaced by Sultanah Nur al-'A'lam Naqiyiyat al-Din (1675-1678). Then, replaced by Zakiyyat al-Din (1678 - 1688), and the Sultanah Kamalat al-Din (1688 - 1699) which derived from his throne after coming delegation from Makkaah to the Acehe Palace which explains that a woman is not allowed to become the leader of an empire. [xvii]

'Abd al-Ra'uf taught at Kuala Sungai, Banda Aceh until his death in 1693 M/ 1105 H and was buried there. In addition to teaching, he was also appointed as mufti Kesultanan Aceh. [xviii] If the terms of his return to Aceh until his death at the age of about 78 years, then in terms of government policy, 'Abd al-Ra'uf become a mufti for four Sultanate of Aceh. During his career in Aceh, 'Abd al-Ra'uf has written 21 books. I Tafsir, 3 works on the hadith, 3 works in the field of jurisprudence/ Fiqh, and the rest of Tafsir Qariah or Tarekat. Tafsir that mentioned was Turjuman al-Mustafid. According to the dissertation Peter Riddell this work is a translation of a book of Tafsir Jalalain.[xix]

Some students who had studied to Syaikh 'Abd al-Ra'uf was Tuanku Ulakan from West Sumatra,' Abd al-Muhyi 'from West Java,' Abdul Malik ibn 'Abdullah, and the student who most merit in writing of Turjuman (Baba Daud al-Jawi al-Fanshuri bin Isma'il bin Agha Agha Mustafa bin Ali al-Rumi). [xx]

4. GLANCE OF TAFSIR TURJUMAN AL-MUSTAFID

To view the work of Nusantara scholars from Aceh, the author makes the Mushaf Al-Quran al-Karim by Hamisy Tafsir Turjuman al-Mustafid by Ahmadabad Printing, Mumbai 1370 H/ 1951AD as a guidance and the main reference. The book consists of 612 pages divided into two parts, the first part consists of Surah al-Fatiha to Surah al-Isra while the second part consists of Surah al-Isra' to Surah al-Nas. [xxi] On the front cover of the book bylined namely: 'Abd al-Ra'uf bin Ali al-Fansyuri al-Jawi. However, when we read by the end of the book, it will be found a very important statement presented by David al-Rumi as student of 'Abd al-Ra'uf, as seen clearly in the following sentence:

(Written on the capital and 'Abd al-Ra'uf taught Dukung the age of 78 years and the endnotes of this paper is the author's own)

This final note gives some very important information, including:

First, this book is not only written by 'Abd al-Ra'uf, but also by his student David al-Rumi by the direction or dictation of 'Abd al-Ra'uf. This conclusion certainly with reason;

(1) Explanation that, this work is translated by 'Abd al-Ra'uf accompanied by a picture of how great he is, shows that of David al-Rumi as student wrote a final note, a side of tawaddhu' for Rumi himself and give very high respect for 'Abd al-Ra'uf.

(2) Consistency of capitalization at the end of the word, not the letter i, at the end of this note and also on the content of the book, indicating that the author of the content part and endnotes of this paper is the same person.[xx]

(3) Consistency use number 2 to indicate repeated letters also contained in the contents of the book and the final note book

(4) This was strengthened by the information conveyed by Azyumardi Azra[xxi] that writing ability of Malay 'Abd al-Ra'uf al-Sinkili not as good as Arabic language.

The author concludes that this work was the intellectual thought 'Abd al-Ra'uf Singkel which is written by his student David al-Rumi. Daud al-Rumi does not directly explain the source of the referenced 'Abd al-Ra'uf. However, he explained that there were several additions which he Dab at the behest of his teacher, that is on the stories mostly taken from the Tafsir al-Khazin and also ikhtilaf giraat. By doing so, I will explore the source of Tafsir Turjuman by compare inter textual and exclude additional form of stories and giraat difference, because both of these are in addition to al-Rumi David behest of his teacher. But there is no explanation of what it was doing, in front of 'Abd al-Ra'uf or after 'Abd al-Ra'uf died. So then, Tafsir al-Mustafid turjuman prepared based on the notion of 'Abd al-Ra'uf al-Sinkili to "throw" the story as well as existing ikhtilaf giraat.

Systematic of the book is written in full thirty chapters, a little introduction about the surah and its advantage, interpret globally, to include an additional form of qisshah referred to the Tafsir al-Khazin and Tafsir... al-Baidhawi, featuring ikhtilaf of three qari' qira'ah (marked with the word faidah bounded by parentheses) as well as in some parts also shown qisshah containing sabab al-Nuzul. As the author mentioned that variety qira'at and stories which contained in this work is an addition of David’s al-Rumi.

5. SOURCES AND CONTENT OF TARJUMAN AL-MUSTAFID

Azyumardi Azra[xxiii] explained that, among Orientalists disagree about the source of this Tafsir. Snouck said that this Tafsir is a rough translation of the book al-Baidhawi. Snouck student, Rinkes as well as other Dutch scholars, namely Voorhoeve stated that the book is a translation of Tafsir al-Baidhawi and partly from Tafsir al-Jalalayn. Riddell stated that this book is a direct translation of Tafsir al-Jalalayn and additional information taken from other books.[xxiv] Various opinions have showed that researchers still disagree about the source of Tafsir Turjuman.

6. TARJUMAN AL-MUSTAFID’S REFERENCES

Turjuman al-Mustafid often accused of as a Malay translation of the book by Anwar al-Tanzil wa Asrar al-Ta'wil works of Priest Nasiruddin al-Baidhawi[xxv] who died in 685 H.[xxvi] The accusation is with some reasons, there are at least three reasons can deliver a researcher who does not recite in detail to assert that Turjuman is a translation from Baidhawi.

2. At the end of Turjuman, occur an introduction from editors which explaining that the book is a translation of the book al-Baidhawi. The proofreaders teams are Ahmad al-Fathani, Daud al-Fathani, and Idris Kelantani.

3. Lots of number of inter-textual references to this work, in the form of benefit fadhilah surah description and explanation.

Although this opinion is strong enough relied upon, however, if we read carefully, there are many differences between the book of Turjuman with al-Baidhawi even from the first page. Having regard to the pattern of the same work, but with a different way of citation book. As alluded to that, inter textual book of al-Baidhawi as an addition from David al-Rumi. The second book was referenced in Turjuman is the book of al-Ta'wil Lubab fi Ma'ani Alauddin al-Tanzil work of Abu al-Hasan Ali bin Muhammad bin Ibrahim bin 'Umar ibn Khalil al-Bagdadi al-Shafi'i al-Shufi.[xxvii] He died in the year 741 H. [xxviii] This Tafsir known as the Tafsir al-Khazin. [xxix] Daud al-Rumi explained that many additional qisshah (story) which he took from tafsir al-Khazin.

Other book was referenced in Turjuman is Ma’alim al-Tanzil fi Tafsir al-Quran by Abu Muhammad al-Husain ibn Mas’ud ibn Muhammad ibn Farra’ al-Baghwai al-Shafi’i (d510H).[xxx] This book is famous as the Tafsir al-Baghwai. The author found, only one time mention of Tafsir al-Baghwai as a reference. This book can be found in the introduction surah al-Fatihah and surah al-Nur. In addition, there are several books that are also mentioned in al-Ts’alabi Turjuman, and Nihayah.[xxxi] It is interesting to be disclosed that, the books that mention as a reference of ‘Abd al-Ra’uf, but according to the analysis of the author its is not. Some of the book is the material referred to by David al-Rumi in providing additional and or explanation of the work of his lecturer. Indication that shows it is any mention to every book as the source inter textual separated from the discussion or verses tafsir with the words faidah or qisshah. This differs from the interpretation of verses unsourced, on the other hand more references in accordance with this tafsir is Tafsir Jalalain.

Jalalain only once mentioned in Turjuman, [xxxi] but if examined closely, will find similarities between the two Tafsir books. The similarity is evident in many ways:

1. The existence of common sabab al-Nuzul between Turjuman al-Mustafid on page 84 with Jalalain on page 106. Although there are similarities between the two, was not mentioned direct reference to Jalalain.

2. Similarity of explanation Nasikh-Mansukh, in the book Turjuman page 30 with Jalalain on page 39. These two parts are not mentioned in the verse, but in the middle of the verse.

3. If the hypothesis of the authors on the use of inter textual references, written by David al- Rumi to be believed, then the tafsir by ‘Abd al-Ra’uf very similar to Jalalain. But the study of language (nahwu) which contained in Jalalain discarded or not translated.

4. Abd al-Ra’uf been studied to al-Qusyasyi and Ibrahim al-Kuran which has Isnad that up to the author of Jalalain.

Thus Turjuman al-Mustafid book is a translation of ‘Abd al-Ra’uf, once selected and discarded parts that are not in accordance with the condition of the people of Aceh at the time. Portions were dumped by ‘Abd al-Ra’uf...
7. EXPLANATION ABOUT FIRST SURAH AND ITS FADHILAH

Before explaining about the interpretation of a Surah, previously Daud al-Rumi add a brief introduction about the Surah. For example, when explaining Surah al-Fatihah, he will first explain in Malay ‘surat al-Fatihah terdiri dari tujuh ayat, yang dibangsaikan ia kepada Makkah yakni yang turun di Makkah maka tersebut di dalam Baidhawi bahwa fahihah itu penawar bagi tiap-tiap penyakit dan seterusnya ...’[xxxii] Daud al-Rumi quote Baidhawi and Manafi’ul Quran in Surah al-Fatihah (1) to al-Nur (24), while Surah al-Furqan (25) to Surah al-Nas (114) cited only Baidhawi him self. There is an exception to the Surah al-Ra’d (13) its only mentioned Baidhawi. The other exception is the Surah Yasin (36) which quote Tafsir Baidhawi and al-Kazhin by Rumi.

8. FAIDAH AND QISSHAH

In addition to providing a brief overview about Surah, Daud al-Rumi also add this work by using two keywords, namely faidah and qissah. Both are marked by brackets. Faidah function in this book is an explanation about Ikhtilaf Qiraat.[xxxiii]. Differences or similarities on mufassir[xxxiv] opinion and discussion on nasikh and mansukh.[xxxv] The function of Qissah in this book is to explain the reports relating to verses or sabab al-Nuzul. Excerpts of the story referred to a lot of interpretation of al-Kazhin, “tersebut di dalam Khazin’.[xxxvi] partly citing Baidhawi, as well as al-Baghawi. There are also some reports mentioned without explaining the reference.

If the word faidah and qissah placed at the end of a verse, it was the addition from Daud al-Rumi which referred from various books of Tafsir in Arabic Language. If faidah or qissah located in the middle section (before the end of the verse), then it is a direct interpretation of ‘Abd al-Ra’uf Singkel to Tafsir Jalalain. [xxxvii] Similarly, an explanation of nasikh and mansukh located in the middle of the verse is a translation from Tafsir Jalalain[xxxviii]

9. IKHTILAF QIRAAT

On the second page of the Tafsir Turjuman there is the explanation given by David al-Rumi about qira’at sab’ah:

In the next section, an explanation about the seven priests Qiraat no longer found because its only shown the difference between Qiraat and three Qari’[xii] namely: Abu ‘Amr [xiii] (a history of al-Duri),[xiii] Nafi’ (Qalun history)[xiv] and the history of Hafsh[xv] from priest ‘Ashim. [xvi] It could be, the reason to mention of two names of priests Qiraat because the general public more familiar with the name of the priests (Abu ‘Amr and Nafi’) rather then the narrator (Qalun and al-Duri), while Rawi Hafsh more famous than priests Ashim. In the next section the authors will describe some examples of interpretations of ‘Abd al-Ra’uf, especially in issue of women's status, because during his career in Aceh under the leadership of four Sultanah. The aim was to determine the effect on the socio-historical the author towards the contents of his book.

10. STATUS OF WOMEN ACCORDING TO ‘ABD AL-RA’UF SINGKEL

To see a thought or understanding of ‘Abd al-Ra’uf Singkel to the position and status of women, the authors conducted an analysis of some of the book of al-Mustafid Turjuman, by collecting some Qur’anic verses related to the position and status of women, such as Qs, al-Nisa:4: 1, 32, 34, 124, and Qs, al-Nahl / 16: 97. In addition to presenting the thematic logic, the authors also presented a comparison of the sources of interpretation from Tafsir Baidhawi and Tafsir Jalalain, to see whether the interpretation of ‘Abd al-Ra’uf to various verses were his own ijtihad/ efforts or adaptations from Arabic language books.

130 | EDUCATION
in contrast to the Imam al-Baidhawi, Jalaluddin al-Mahalli using ijmali method of interpreting this verse; (Wahai manusia) yaitu perdudak Makkah (Takutlah pada Tuhanmu) yaitu pada adzhabNya dengan cara *mentaat*Nya (yang telah menciupkan kamunya dari jiwanya yang satu) Adam (dan telah menciptakan darinya pasangannya) Hawwa dengan madd dari tulang rusuk Adam bagian kiri (dan memperkembang-biakkan mencerai-berakaian, menyebarkannya dari keduanya) dari Adam dan Hawwa (laki-laki dan perempuan yang banyak) banyak. (Dan bertakwalah kepada Allah Swt yang dengan Nya kalian saling meminta satu sama lain) pada kata tersebut terdapat idgham huruf ta asalnya kepada huruf sin yang dibaca dengan takhfif dengan cara membungunnya yaitu tas'aluna [xlix]

In the above verse, visible differences in interpretation between the three scholars. ‘Abd al-Rauf interpret this verse in brief, at first glance looks like a translation of a Tafsir Jalalain, but there are some details that are not written down. Eg. The substance of the creation of Adam, the explanation 'i'rab or nahwu against tasa'aluna word. Explanation of how to read qiraat priest Ashim, Hamzah, and Kisai also not mentioned. In addition, ‘Abd al-Rauf al-Singkili also not quote hadith presented by priest al-Baidhawi.

In this section it appears some parts of Tafsir Jalalain not quoted by ‘Abd al-Rauf that explanation *'i'rab and Eve creation from Adam’s rib. In addition, ‘Abd al-Rauf quoted the entire description contained in Jalalain.

Qs, al-Nisa’/4: 32

“Dan jangan kamu cita-citakan barang yang telah nugeraahkan Allah ta’ala dengan dia akan setengah kamu atas setengah kamu daripada fihak dunia atau agama, supaya jangan yang demikian itu membawa kepada berangkai-dengki antara kamu. Bagi segala laki-laki itu suatu padala daripada yang telah dikerjakan mereka itu daripada perang dan lainnya dan bagi segala perempuan itu suatu pahala daripada yang telah dikerjakan mereka itu pada perbuatan baik suami dan memelihara akan faraj dari pada haram”.

(Kisah) Bawalah turun ayat ini inti tatkala dikata oleh sambah: Hai kiranya kami jadi laki maka perang kami dan adalah bagi kamu seperti yang bagi laki-laki daripada pahala. Dan (همهن) oleh kamu kepada Allah Ta’ala daripada nugerahnya barang yang berkeberkahan kamu kepadanya niscaya dinugerahti akan kami bahwasanya Allah ta’ala adalah ia akan tiap-tiap suatu yang amat tahu.”[lii]

According to al-Baidhawi, tamanni which prohibited in this verse is wishful thinking on worldly matters. Therefore, every man and woman to get something from the results of their efforts are earnest/ of his hard work each (Iktasaba). Al-Baidhawi also explain another interpretation of this verse, that men and women would take part each in inheritance issues. [lili] Al-Baidhawi also cite a history of sabab al-Nuzul this verse, namely:

While al-Mahalli interpret that banned tamanni it in terms of temporal and religious issues, because of the nature of tamanni this will lead to envy and jealousy. For men there is reward for the war/ jihad that they have done, while for women there is reward for their obedience to her husband and their devotion in maintaining gender. This clause has been dropped because of Ummu Salamah said: "If we women will jihad and get a reward like that earned the men”. Al-Mahalli added was’alu readings could use hamzah or not. [liv]

In this verse again seen closeness between tafsir Turjuman al-Mustafid with Tafsir Jalalain. However, ‘Abd al-Rauf did not include discussion of nahwu in his tafsir. Their quotations sabab al-Nuzul in mid of verse without mentioning the source of his tafsir increasingly provide an explanation that Turjuman is a translation from Jalalain-adjusted by their translators. Regarding the position and the work of women, according to ‘Abd al-
Ra’uf is her service to her husband and her obedience in keeping faraj. While a man rewarded for jihad, or go to war. If viewed through the perspective of gender and feminism, then the work done by women at the domestic space while the work of a man is in the public domain.\[15\]

Bermula segala laki-laki itu dikeraskan mereka itu atas segala perempuan dengan ilmu dan akal dan wilayah dan dengan sabab dibanyakkan mereka itu atas mereka itu daripada segala (ارت /arti - urat) mereka itu.

Maka segala perempuan yang shalih itu berbuat baiknya mereka itu atau segala suami mereka itu lagi memelihara mereka itu bagi segala faraj mereka itu pada ketika gaib segala suami mereka itu dengan sebab dipelihara akan Allah ta’ala mereka itu.

Dan segala perempuan yang kamu ketakuti akan durhaka mereka itu bagi kamu maka pertakuti oleh kamu mereka itu akan Allah Ta’ala dan hilang / halang (هالة) oleh kamu mereka itu daripada segala ketiduran dan pukul oleh kamu mereka itu dengan pukul yang tiada memberi apabila tiada mereka itu kembali kembali kepada thaat dengan hilang/halang itu.

Maka jika thaat mereka itu akan kamu pada barang yang kamu kehendaki daripada mereka itu maka jangan dituntut atas mereka itu jalan kepada memuak pada hal kamu aniaya. Bahwusanya Allah Ta’ala adalah ia yang amat tinggi lagi yang besar maka kekutuhuliah oleh kamu akan Dia.\[17\]

In the above verse, the author gives emphasis to the three Arabic-language vocabulary, especially in the word wilayah. The author has not been able to find reasons for the use of this word in the Arabic language of the 17th century in Nusantara. It may be that these words have been widely recognized in the community or sultanate family of Aceh, or it is no intention of the author of its own so it does not translate the word into the Malay language.

According to al-Baidhawi, superiority of male over female is perfectly reasonable, good learning (husn al-tadbir), increasing strength in the work and obedience, therefore they devoted to occupy the prophetic leadership (imamah), the region, and establish the entire sharia law, recognition in court, obligation on Friday and jihad, as well as over the amount of inheritance.\[18\] The advantages of a man over a woman according to al-Mahalli are in the matter of science, reason, and other regions. As for the wife who nusyudz then let advised to fear Allah, separate bunk and hit with a punch that does not hurt if it does not return obedient after marital separation.\[19\]

In this section can be understood that the man has some advantages, namely in terms of science, reason, and region. Moreover, against a wife who nusyudz there are three steps that must be done is to advise, separate beds (not separated house or separate rooms), and hit with punches that do not injure.

From this, it appears that ‘Abd al-Ra’uf not translate word wilayah into Malay. There is some analysis that can be applied to see this fact. First, it could be said the word wilayah has been widespread in the community so that the empire has become a loan word Malay. Second, this word deliberately not translated as prudence ‘Abd al-Ra’uf, because if the word can be translated happen havoc in communities about Sultanah leadership. This fact strengthens the hypothesis that the beginning writer Tafsir Turjanum al-Mustafid is a translation of Tafsir Jalalain which has been adapted by ‘Abd al-Ra’uf Singkel with the Acehnese social conditions of the time.

Dan barang siapa yang mengerjakan suatu dari pada segala amal yang shalih dari pada segala laki-laki atau perempuan, padahal ia mukmin, maka mereka itulah yang masuk ke dalam syurga dan tiada dianiyai (دائم) mereka itu dengan sekira-kira lubang biji jarum jua pun. (Faidah) Pada menyatakan Ikhitilaf antara segala Qari’ yang tiga pada membaca “yadkhuluna” maka Nafi’ dan Hafsh ittifaq keduanya atas membaca dia dengan fathah yangya serta dhummah yangya dan Abu ‘Amr membaca dia dengan dhummah ya-nya serta fathah ya-nya adalah maknakan ketaka itu yang dimasukkan mereka itu ke dalam syurga.

Al-Baidhawi interprets the verse as follows:

ومن ي newName_1 من الصالحين بعضها أو شيئا منها فإن كل أحد لا يملك من كنها وليس ومن للبيك أو من من ذكر أو أثني في موضوع أحيل من المتبرك في يعمل كمكلفا بها. الصالحين أي كأنهن ذكر أو أثني من لابناء. وهو كأن نحل خلاف أفراد عملها في استعده القائم الذكور وتمبيها على أنه لا اعتداد به دونه فيه. فانك لِنُجْحُون الجنة ولاتبركون نكرًا ببصي من القايب وإلا لم يغص قايب الله تعالى ولذلك اقتصر على ذكره. لأن إحدى أرجح الراهنين، فما دأ أن لا يبركون قايب العاصي عليه القايب لأنه أتى أن يعر وآبي يكر ونجلون الجنة هنام في «فأحر» و«مرح» بضم الياء، وفتح الياء، والواقفون يفتح الياء، وضم الواو.\[20\]
While priest al-Mahalli explain this verse as following:

\[\text{وَمَنْ وَعَمَلَ فَلْهُمَا خَيَاةٌ طَيِّبَةٌ، وَهُوَ مَوْعِظَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ} (النور ١٣١)\]

Tafsir described by 'Abd Ra'uf closer to interpretation of al-Mahalli. However, their "faidah" which specifically separated by parenthases explaining how to read lafadz Yadkhuluna difference is not exist in Jalalain. Information on this case is contained in al-Baidhawi, but different from three Qari mentioned. In Turjuman mentioned that Qari are Nafi', Hafsh and Abu Amr. While Qari mentioned in al-Baidhawi are Ibn Amr, Abu Bakr, and Ibn Kathir.

Qs, al-Nahl/18: 97

Barangsiapa yang mengerjakan amal yang shalih daripada laki-laki atau perempuan padahal ia percaya akan Allah ta'ala, maka lagi akan kami hidupkan akan dia dengan hidup yang baik, yaitu hidup di dalam surga dan lagi kami balas akan mereka itu dengan yang terbaik daripada segala amal mereka itu.\[lxi\]

According to al-Baidhawi, a good deeds and religious whether male or female, will be given a good life in the world. There is another opinion which states that life will be in the Hereafter. However, this opinion poorly supported by al-Baidhawi so he just put it out as additional information with shighat qiila.\[lxii\]

Meanwhile, according to al-Suyuti, the interpretation of this verse is as follows: \[lxiii\]

In this verse and the previous verse, 'Abd al-Ra'uf revealed that every man who is faithful, both men and women and do good deeds, then they will get a reply in the form of a good life in the hereafter. In this section there is any modifications made by 'Abd al-Ra'uf, do not translate other opinions about the good life which is life in the world with enough flavor or with halal rizki. If concluded, the 'Abd al-Ra'uf looked at the status of women as follows: Eve was created from Adam, Women have a duty to obey her husband or that are in the domestic space, while a man or husband has several advantages, namely science, reason, and region, A woman who nusyudz be faced with three ways, namely, (1) advised, (2) is separated from his bed, and (3) was hit with punches that do not injure. 'Abd al-Ra'uf also considers that a man and woman have the same potential to earn a good livelihood in the Hereafter.

11. ORIGINALITY OF TAFSIR TURJUMAN AL-MUSTAFID

From the examples above, it appears that 'Abd al-Ra'uf aplenty refer to Tafsir Jalalain, after selecting the parts that do not conform to the local community, such as the discussion of grammar or nahwu. This work can not considered as translation (tarjamah lafdziyyah) in general, because there remains the creative interpretation of 'Abd al-Ra'uf Singkel. On the contrary, this work also can not be considered as an original work by the thought of 'Abd al-Ra'uf, because most of it is the assessment contained in the Tafsi Jalalain. Thus, this work is an adaptation tarjemah tafsiiriyyah Jalalain. This means that 'Abd al-Ra'uf not fully translate, but selecting a few parts that deserves to be presented to the people of Aceh at the time. As for aplenty of additional aplenty mentioned in this book is a great addition Daud al-Rumi as a student and also the "katib"/scribes of Tafsir Turjuman. According to the authors, the differences in Tafsir 'Abd al-Ra'uf and Daud al-Rumi lies on the mention of the source text. If sources or references mentioned, then it is an addition from David al-Rumi.

12. CONCLUSION

Tafsir Turjuman al-Mustafid is handwritten work by David al-Rumi by the Tafsir Abd al-Ra'uf al-Sinkili towards Tafsir Jalalain which has been adapted to the social conditions in which they both lived. Daud al-Rumi explains that, he was at the behest of his teacher, has made several additions, in the form of the difference girat and stories associated with the referral intertextual which many taken from al-Khazin. There are no discussions related to the social conditions in this book, especially in matters of women's leadership. Because as long as the book was arranged, 'Abd al-Ra'uf under the leadership of sultanah. Assuming that the pre-understanding initiated by Gadamer, it can be said that this book is not an original work of 'Abd al-Ra'uf but as tarjamah tafsiiriyyah of Tafsir Jalalain by adding a few parts and discard the other parts which are not required by the people of Aceh at the time.
